Procedure: 4500.11
Chapter: Education
Rule: Computer Assisted Instruction

Effective: 7/30/08
Replaces: 4500.11
Dated: 10/10/1997

Purpose:

The Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections (ADJC) utilizes computer assisted instruction as an instructional methodology, although it is not expected to be the only methodology used in assisting a juvenile to accomplish his/her individual learning objectives.

Rules:

1. The EDUCATION PRINCIPAL shall ensure:
 - a. Appropriate classroom computer hardware and software is purchased;
 - b. Training for teachers and teacher aides in using and maintaining the hardware and software is arranged and updated as necessary; and
 - c. Teacher planning and implementation results in appropriate use of computer hardware and software.
2. TEACHERS shall:
 - a. Include the specific ways computer assisted instruction is to be utilized in lesson plans; and
 - b. Train juveniles using computer assisted instruction.
